The startling new documentary of the JFK assassination. "If you thought JFK was important and you want the factual background to the maligned Garrison investigation, see this film!" — Oliver Stone. "A tantalizingly speculative thesis that Kennedy was on a collision course with the military industrial complex." Hollywood Reporter. "(The film) coldly lists the various screw-ups, official panic, botched police work, bungled evidence, coincidence, media hysteria and government misconduct that add up to conspiracy and cover-up" — Associated Press. Directed by John Barbour. In Color & B&W. 35mm. 93 mins. 1992. USA.
